

Elias Said-Hung

Tenured lecturer at the Faculty of Education, member of the SIMI research group and Director of the University Master's Degree in Inclusive and Intercultural Education at the International University of La Rioja (UNIR), and is President of the Science, Technology and Society Association (CITESOC). He received his Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from the Central University of Venezuela and his Ph.D. in Communication Sciences from the Complutense University of Madrid, Spain. I have published more than 100 publications, of which more than 60 have been in academic publications indexed in WoS and Scopus (https://scholar.google.es/citations?hl=es&user=4_ypbWcAAAAJ&sortby=pubdate&view_op=list_works). He has participated in more than 10 R & D & I projects financed in competitive calls for Administrations or public and private entities (<https://www.eliassaidhung.com/>). I am a member of the different scientific journals in Colombia, Mexico, Spain, and Venezuela. I also serve as a member of the Julian Assange Chair, sponsored by CIESPAL. The main research areas developed in the last five years are framed in the study of ICT applied in Education, Social Networks, and Digital Media. I have two six-year terms recognized by ANECA-CNEAI in the 2008-2013 and 2014-2019 sections (alive until 2025) at the level of research activity and as a project evaluator for the State Research Agency of the Ministry of Science and Innovation of the Government of Spain.

Project PTDC/COM-JOR/3866/2020, funded by:

Project PID2020-114584GB-I00, funded by:

